How do parcel lockers work?

Parcel lockers often have detailed instructions on how to collect the parcel. When your package is delivered to a parcel locker, the delivery carrier - usually a postal service, courier company, or online retailer's delivery service - has placed your package into a secure, automated locker.

What happens when a package arrives at a locker?

When a package arrives at the locker, customers receive a notification informing them of its arrival. To collect their package or parcel from the locker, customers are assigned a unique access number or QR code. This practical and secure system helps reduce the risk of parcel theft that often occurs when packages are left unattended on doorsteps.
