Is data centre complacency a problem at Hanley Energy?

The outlook for the next few years remains healthy -- the data centre industry in Ireland is expected to register a CAGR of 14% to 2030 -- but complacency has never had a place at Hanley Energy. Supply chain issues, for example, are a challenge that needs to be addressed.

Will Norway turn off electricity interconnectors in 2026?

"It's an absolutely shit situation," said Norway's energy minister Terje Aasland. The ruling centre-left Labour party now says it wants to campaign in next year's parliamentary election, set for September, to turn off electricity interconnectors to Denmark when they come up for renewal in 2026.

Does Norway pay for electricity over a lower price?

Norwegian consumers are somewhat insulated from the high prices as the government pays for 90 per cent of electricity over a certain price. But Progress wants the government to pay for all the power above a lower price, arguing that the state makes billions of kroner from the high electricity prices through its hydropower generation.
